

Haywood County Beekeeper's Association

Monthly Minutes

August 1, 2017

Vice President Rich Byers opened the meeting.

Allen Blanton, President of Haywood County Beekeepers Association, is recovering from ear implant surgery.

Members honey: sourwood, basswood, tulip poplar. What is blooming? Nothing, sourwood is finishing up

Bill Skelton: Field Day will be Aug. 12. Varroa mite treatments (500 will be discussed with a sugar roll demonstration. Bring a suit and veil for hands on after class. Bring a covered dish, side or desert. Meat will be supplied by the club.

County Fair is Aug 22, 10am – 6 pm Honey entries, etc.

- Aug 24, Opens to the public
- Aug 25, School day (10-minute sessions)
- Volunteers needed Tues, Aug 8, 9am – 2 pm, no registration

Rick Queen gave highlights of the State Meeting in Winston-Salem. David Massengill spoke of being appointed NCSBA local Rep.

Rich covered the Veterinary Feed Directive referral for ordering antibiotics for EFB. He introduced program by Janet Peterson and Scott Davies.

Buncombe County will host the next State meeting in 2018
The Mountain State Fair is Sept. 8.

- Aug. 25 paperwork for entries needs to be submitted.
- Sept. 4-5 deliver entries for the fair.

Meeting adjourned.

Vicki Morrison

Haywood County Beekeepers Secretary